Terms and Conditions of your EVMax Plan (NSW, QLD, SA)

1. Applicable Price Plan

EVMax Price Plan is a non-fixed Term Price Plan. These Terms & Conditions apply to the EVMax Price Plan.

1.1 Benefits

Under this Price Plan:

i. electricity exported to the grid between 4:00 PM and 11:00 PM will be credited at the FiT rate of 5c/kWh for NSW and QLD, and 2c/kWh for SA. Electricity exported outside this period will not get a feed-in tariff credit; and

ii. electricity usage during the EV Off Peak periods of 12:00 AM–6:00 AM and 11:00 AM–2:00 PM will be charged at 6c/kWh (including GST), for the first 30 kWh per day across both periods. Usage above the 30 kWh daily limit across these periods will be charged at the applicable Off Peak rate.

The applicable Peak and Off Peak usage rates and time periods are set out in your Offer Summary / Basic Plan Information Document (BPID).

1.2 Eligibility

To be eligible for this plan:

i. you must have a smart meter installed at your supply address;

ii. you must be on a residential tariff without a controlled load tariff; and

iii. your supply address must be located in New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia.

You must continue to meet these eligibility requirements while you are on this Plan.

2. Other Charges

Other applicable usage rates and charges may change in accordance with your Energy Retail Agreement and applicable Regulatory Requirements. We will notify you of any changes where required by applicable Regulatory Requirements.

3. Important information for you

- All time periods are based on local time at the supply address unless otherwise stated.
- Where applicable, feed-in tariff arrangements are subject to the terms of your Solar Contract.
- The benefits under this Price Plan are subject to eligibility, meter data availability and applicable daily limits.
- These Terms & Conditions must be read together with your CovaU Energy Retail Agreement and your Offer Summary / Basic Plan Information Document (BPID), and any other document expressly stated to form part of your agreement with CovaU.
